Welcome: Professor Helen O’Sullivan, Provost and Deputy Vice-Chancellor, University of Chester

Keynote 3: Professor Charles Egbo, Vice-Chancellor, Leeds Trinity University

Q&A

09:00-10:00
6.6 Workshop/Interactive Breakout

10:45-11:00
10:05-10:45
The future for HE curricula

16:45-17:00
15:25-16:00
5.4 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
5.6 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
5.5 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
The future for enterprise and employability in the curricula

5.1 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
5.2 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
5.3 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
5.4 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
5.5 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
5.6 Workshop/Interactive Breakout

11:00-12:00
Applying employability in assessment during a pandemic

Dr Zahid Pranjol, University of Sussex

The challenge of inclusivity and digital approaches to assessments. Synoptic assessments, authentic assessments, rubrics and feedback

Hands-on problem-led learning: A postgraduate module combining start-up experience, complex problem solving and ecosystem building that rapidly develops and practices transferable skills for a COVID and post-COVID job market

How to embed employability into programme design: Creative lessons learned from developing a new online BSc.

Lighting the spark: An exploration of employability and enterprise education in practice - what can ignite a fire?

The psychology of the classroom space: From the physical to the digital in the post-COVID era

12:00-12:45
LUNCH

12:45-13:30
Ignite Session 3 - Pre-recorded with live Q&A (45 mins)

Adapt, evolve, flex: Practicing what we preach to ensure effective employability training for postgraduates. Katie Ollison, Imperial College London

Disseminating high achieving students amid COVID-related assessment parameter changes: Development of an invigilated selection test for limited-entry clinical programmes. Dr Suzanne Reid, The University of Auckland

Innovation and creativity in taught postgraduate summer project options: Leveraging technology and supporting future career pathways. Dr Jeffery Hughes, University of St Andrews

13:30-14:10
Assessment for learning to foster reflective practice for undergraduate dental and BSc students. Dr Ana Angelova Volponi and Dr Melanie Nasseripour. King’s College University of London

The implementation of the employability skills programme in a global pandemic: Delights and pitfalls. Dr Kali Rose, Dr Sarah Birdwick, Dr Ana Paula Fonseca, Serena Richardson and Nick Fannin, Edinburgh Napier University

Employability in Psychology: Preparing our students for graduate life during COVID-19 and beyond. Dr Paula Oxenman and Dr Sofia Barbara Bousac, Brunel University London

Assessing student learning through non-assessed assessments: Findings from a cross-sectional and multinational teaching and learning approach. Dr Aasal Dhali, Liverpool Hope University

Hack 2040: An ideathon to engage students in university strategy whilst developing their enterprise skills. Dr John Barrow, University of Aberdeen

14:10-14:25
BREAK - Poster viewing, networking etc.

14:10-14:25
Live Parallel Session 6

The future for HE curricula

The future for enterprise and employability in the curricula

The future for HE curricula

The future for enterprise and employability in the curricula

0.1 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
0.2 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
0.3 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
0.4 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
0.5 Workshop/Interactive Breakout
0.6 Workshop/Interactive Breakout

Creative assessments for STEM

Changing spaces: Exploring students’ transitions to a blended learning environment

“What’s in it for me?”: Persuading students to embrace employability development

Enhancing enterprise and employability in interdisciplinary and multinational online pedagogy: A workshop to facilitate strategies for students to develop an online portfolio

Embedding peer learning within future HE curricula: An institutional approach for supporting students’ transition, engagement and retention

Teaching and learning online: Engaging with the student voice

Louise Krepski, DigitalEd
Teri-Lisa Griffiths, Dr Jill Dickinson and Anna Fletcher, Sheffield Hallam University
Dr Joan McLatchie and Dr Nathan Page, University of York
Dr Rod Dubrow-Manaland and Dr Linda Dubrow-Manaland, University of Salford
Lucy Chivers and Catherine McConnell, University of Brighton
Dr Sue Taylor, Northumbria University

14:25-15:05

15:05-16:09
ON-DEMAND LIVE NETWORKING SESSION

Panel Session 3

We can agree that sustainable and innovative approaches are needed to enhance employability and enterprise in the curriculum – what are the challenges and what are the solutions?

Chair - Stuart Norton, Senior Adviser Teaching and Learning, Advance HE

Aranea Mencharan, future Head of Careers & Employability, King’s College London
Professor Andy Penaluna, Professor Emeritus, University of Wales Trinity Saint David
Dr Iai Utagbe-Green, Associate Professor (Accounting and Finance), Leeds University Business School

16:00-16:45
16:45-17:30
16:00-16:45
16:45-17:30

Summative Plenary