About the UK Professional Standards Framework

The UK Professional Standards Framework for teaching and supporting learning (“UKPSF”) is developed by Advance HE and endorsed by Guild HE and Universities UK (“UUK”).

The UKPSF provides a general description of the main dimensions of the roles of teaching and supporting learning within the HE environment. It is written from the perspective of the practitioner and outlines a national framework for comprehensively recognising and benchmarking teaching and learning support roles within higher education. Its central purpose is to help those seeking to enhance the learning experience of their students, by improving the quality of their teaching and learning support.

The UKPSF provides staff engaged in delivery of teaching and learning support in higher education with a framework to guide their initial and continuing professional development. The UKPSF can be used to inform institutional staff development programmes to facilitate individuals in gaining formal recognition for quality-enhanced approaches to the practice of teaching and supporting learning. Advance HE supports and guides both institutions and individuals as they engage with the UKPSF to continually develop their practice.

In addition to the UKPSF, Advance HE makes available associated documents and materials on its website, including but not limited to reports, workshop materials and PowerPoint presentations (“Associated Materials”).

Aims of this Policy

The UKPSF has been developed through extensive collaborative research and sector consultation in the UK. Advance HE is keen to encourage the use of the UKPSF within the HE sector. The aim of the UKPSF Terms of Use Policy (the “Policy”) is to ensure:

- the UKPSF is used consistently across the HE sector and interested parties benefit from the well- researched and robust nature of the UKPSF;
- the integrity of the UKPSF and any Associated Materials are protected;
- the UKPSF is transferrable between higher education institutions and other organisations, so that individuals can use it throughout their professional development;
- institutions are able to receive high quality support with the interpretation, adoption and implementation of the UKPSF;
- the UKPSF is protected from inappropriate and unauthorised use.
