Timings

08:15-10:15 Welcome from the NET Committee

10:15-10:30 Keynote: Professor Van Der Schalk, Director of the Centre for Health Professions Education, Stellenbosch University

10:30-10:45 Formalities and presentation

George Fox 5 & George Fox 6

10:45-12:00 Student perceptions from New Zealand and Sweden
Dr Rosalind Weston, Alison Lewis, Fazilah Twining and Jenny Adler, University of Auckland

12:00-12:15 Lunch break

Conclusion from the NET Committee and presentation from the Programme Director

Theme 2

George Fox 6

13:15-15:15 Student perspectives from New Zealand and Sweden
Dr Rosalind Weston, Alison Lewis, Fazilah Twining and Jenny Adler, University of Auckland

15:15-15:30-Pastry Session: Student belonging
Chair: Debbi Marais, University of Warwick

Refresher session and poster session

George Fox 5 & George Fox 6

15:30-16:15 Poster session: Reflections and recommendations
- P1: Reflective Practice: Building resilience for new healthcare professionals during COVID-19: Experiences of a postgraduate research programme.
- P2: Multi-professional simulations of older people care enhance teamwork skills among Healthcare and Medical students, during the pandemic.
- P3: The challenges and opportunities with online simulated interprofessional learning.

16:15-17:00 Poster session: Reflections and recommendations
- P1: What skills and knowledge do academics require to teach reflective practice in an interprofessional setting?
- P2: Literacy and numeracy skills for the new medical student curriculum.
- P3: Linking theme: COVID-19

17:00-18:00 Conference adjourns

Themes

George Fox 2

12:15-13:15 Strand 3A: Learning, teaching and assessment strategies

13:15-14:15 Strand 4A: Learning, teaching and assessment strategies

14:15-15:15 Strand 5A: Learning, teaching and assessment strategies

15:15-16:15 Strand 6A: Learning, teaching and assessment strategies

16:15-17:00 Conference Adjourns