1. Purpose

1.1 The Strategic Advisory Groups (SAGs) have been established as part of Advance HE’s consultative approach to actively engage members in shaping the activity and future direction of the organisation to ensure that Advance HE meets the needs of members. This will involve:

- Reviewing and shaping Advance HE’s priorities within each relevant area;
- Identifying current and emerging strategic issues, challenges and opportunities to inform the future work of Advance HE;
- Considering the implications of thematic areas of work for each relevant area; and
- Advising Advance HE on implementing an integrated approach maximizing the synergies between the areas of equality, leadership, governance and education.

2. Duties

2.1 The Governance SAG are responsible for:

a) Contributing to good governance of the sector;

b) Providing strategic advice and insight regarding the current provision and future development of support for governance effectiveness by Advance HE, to meet the needs of members and stakeholders;

c) Identifying current and emerging strategic governance issues, challenges and opportunities including for collaborative working, across sectors and in a global context;

d) Providing scrutiny to Advance HE’s priority plans for governance, offering critical challenge and advice as required; and

e) Ensuring connectivity to other areas of HE policy and practice such as leadership development and equality, diversity and inclusion.

2.2 To consider any other governance related matters as may be referred to it by Advance HE’s Board and sub-committees.

3. Membership

3.1 The maximum number of members will be 18 members, with a minimum of 16 members drawn from Advance HE member institutions, strategic partners and nominated organisations, to provide a range of skills and perspectives on governance in practice in higher education as well as Advance HE’s support. Other members may be appointed for their specific skills and experience.
